

Evangelia Pelentridou

Museum Educator

Evangelia Pelentridou is a graduate from the Department of Plastic Arts and Art Sciences and hold two MAs: MA in Museum Studies (University of Leicester) and MA in Heritage Management (University of Kent/ AUEB). She also holds degrees from the Royal Academy of Dance (classical dance), and - with honours - from the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing (contemporary dance). Since 2007, she collaborates with Museums and other Cultural Institutions, and has years of experience in designing and implementing educational programmes and experiential art workshops. She is passionate about participatory socio-cultural projects in international contexts.