

Vasiliki Charilaou

Musician - Music Educator

Vasiliki Charilaou is a musician – music educator. She plays baglama, bouzouki, drums and guitar and has received with honors the Degrees in accordion and harmonium, degree and diploma in piano, as well as successively the theoretical degrees: Singing Teaching, Harmony Specialist, Counterpoint and Fugue. At the same time, she has attended numerous experiential-training seminars on: piano pre-education, theatrical play, dramatization, learning problems (dyslexia and ADHD), musical constructions and music-movement education in the Orff, Dalcroze, Codaly systems. She has worked as a music teacher in schools, conservatories and other educational settings. He has also undertaken the artistic direction of Culture and Prosperity s.c.e. and the coordination of the European Music Day for the Municipalities of Andritsaina-Krestena and Zacharo.