

Gabriella Spanò

Musicologist

Gabriella Spanò graduated with honors (summa cum laude) from the Department of Music Studies at La Sapienza University in Rome and holds a flute diploma from the Santa Cecilia Conservatory. She has worked in the music library of the Department of Music Studies of the University of La Sapienza in Rome, in the Library of the Conservatory of S. Pietro a Majella in Naples and in the National Library of France (Bibliothèque Nationale de France) in the Department of Manuscripts and Music. Since May 1996, she has been working at the Music Library "Lillian Voudouri", as a musicologist, head of public services and curator of educational programs for children and young people.