

Salonikidou Elena

Elena is a graduate of Forestry and Natural Environment with a special love for nature - almost as much as for children. Her thesis was dedicated to the formation of a green space in the city, specially designed for children, with the purpose of learning through play, under the trees, while in her Master's studies she dealt with the Conservation and Protection of Terrestrial Natural Ecosystems.