

Chara Vavadaki

Museologist - Museum Educator, Learning producer at MNK

Chara Vavadaki grew up in Heraklion, Crete. Her BA in "Museology, Museography & Exhibition Design" was obtained at the Technical Educational Institute of Patras and her MA in "Educational Sciences, Critical Pedagogy and Teacher Training" was completed at the University of Crete. She has collaborated as a museum educator at various cultural institutions and museums in Greece, like The Historical Museum of Crete, The Hellenic Children's Museum, "Lychnostatis" Museum. Currently, she is in charge of the Education Department at The Nikos Kazantzakis Museum, where she plans and implements educational programs and actions aimed at disseminating the work of Nikos Kazantzakis.